Dear Parents and Carers,

As a wonderful addition to our 'Plants' Science topic and to enrich our learning in Art, the children have the opportunity to visit The Birmingham Botanical Gardens to take part in an Andy Goldsworthy Workshop on Monday 27th March. This trip will consolidate our learning and enable us to see all that we have learnt in action. The visit will take place during normal school hours and children should be in school uniform.

Children will need to bring a packed lunch, a drink, and a healthy snack (no fizzy drinks or products containing nuts please). They will also need a raincoat and suitable footwear. If your child is entitled to Free School Meals, please order a grab bag packed lunch from the kitchen using Parentmail.

Children will be responsible for looking after all of their belongings on the day, so please keep these to a minimum and ensure they are in a suitable bag that will be comfortable for your child to carry. Please also ensure that children have appropriate coats and footwear for the weather as they will be outside for most of the day.

A voluntary contribution of £15.00 is requested to cover the cost of the visit which includes: time to explore the Botanical Gardens, the Andy Goldsworthy workshop and all transport. Whilst there is no obligation on the part of parents to contribute to the cost of activities in school time, and pupils will not be treated differently according to whether or not their parents make a contribution, the visit will unfortunately not go ahead if we do not receive adequate financial support. Please let Miss Buffery know, in confidence, if this causes difficulty or if you would prefer to pay in instalments, especially if you have more than one child in school.

If you wish for your child to take part in the trip please fill out the consent form below and make the payment of £15.00 via the ParentMail app. We will also have a small number of spaces available for parent helpers and if you would like to volunteer, please indicate this below.

Yours Sincerely,

Mrs. Hutchinson
